SHERIFF'S OFFICE MEETS WITH PUBLIC BURMASTER WELCOMES VOUTOUR TO PORTER

Niagara County Sheriff James R. Voutour (r.) takes a few moments to brief local elected officials in the town of Porter about topics he addressed with the general public at a meeting attended by more than three dozen town residents Monday. The meeting, the first in a series of "town-hall" type meetings featuring Voutour and Sheriff's Office leadership, focused on crime statistics for Porter, Ransomville, and Youngstown, the sex offender registry, snowmobile and boat patrol efforts, and general public safety. Listening to Voutour at left are Porter Supervisor Merton K. Wiepert, Town Councilman Jeffrey Baker, and Niagara County Legislature Vice Chairman Clyde L. Burmaster. The Sheriff's Office plans further town-hall meetings in the weeks ahead.

Residents can find out more about issues being addressed in their own towns by visiting the Niagara County Sheriff's Office Web site at www.niagarasheriff.com or by contacting Administrative Capt. Michael Filicetti at 438-3331.
